Subject: condolences

Dear Reverend,

It is with infinite sadness that I received the news of the death of your wife.

On behalf of the Cevaa Community, its President, its Executive Council and its Secretariat in Montpellier, I wish to express our compassion and to offer you our most heartfelt condolences for the loss of your wife.

On behalf of the Community, I also wish to extend my deepest condolences to the entire Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Ghana.

Death, in such circumstances, leaves us devastated and thoughtful in front of multiple (sometimes aggressive) questions and equations to be solved: why, why and why...?

Be assured that the Cevaa supports you in this difficult ordeal and remains in communion with you in prayer. Our hope and consolation are in Christ who conquered death.

« Then I heard a voice from heaven say, “Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on”. Yes, says the Spirit, “they will rest from their labour, for their deeds will follow them.” » (Revelation 14, 13)

United in prayer.

Rev. Dr. Célestin Gb. KIKI
General Secretary of Cevaa
